United States, Mrs Lyman introduced major changes based on her Stateside experience.

These include the creation of six teams within the chamber - each with its own leader and specific area of responsibility; Technology (website/social media); Tourism; Ways and Means (events/fundraising); Government Affairs (representing the business community); Economic and Business Development (improving Axminster for all); Membership (creating member benefits).

The monthly meetings are held quarterly instead, the first one scheduled for Thursday November 28th at 6pm in The Senior Citizens' Centre.

Time to shout about Axminster

Mrs Lyman said: "Do you Feel Passionately about Axminster? We do and we're doing something about it, and so can you."

Issuing the meeting invitation, she added: "Now is the time for you to get involved. We all feel passionately about Axminster and it's time to shout about its heritage, its unique independent businesses, its market and, most of all, its very strong community."

"Everyone is strapped for time and cash, but the more people involved, the more successful we will be at making it happen."

“We all feel passionately about Axminster and it's time to shout about its heritage, its unique independent businesses, its market and, most of all, its very strong community. “Everyone is strapped for time and cash, but the more people involved, the more successful we will be at making it happen.”

“Thanks to the generous financial support of all the local people who care very deeply about our Ottery St Mary Hospital, we are delighted to be able to provide the money to pay for such a useful and much-needed facility for older people. “Our hospital is now very different to what it was when it was established over 100 years ago, but it's still a vital part of our community and we're very appreciative of all the work the health and social care professionals at Ottery hospital do for us. “Funding the refurbishment project is a practical demonstration of our appreciation.”

■ MILLWEY FC - The basement battle at the foot of the South West Peninsula League didn't go to plan for Axminster Town who went down to a 2-1 reverse against Liverton United at Colyton Grammar School.

A bad start saw the Tigers 2-0 down after 20 minutes and to recover from there proved to be too big an ask despite Stuart Broom's headed response.

Ax player-manager Gary McAuley said: “We didn't start well but probably deserved a point against a side who although bottom of the table have had a change of management and have brought in new players in the last few weeks.”

■ CHARD SWIMMING - A squad of 33 swimmers represented Chard & District Swimming Club in a successful Round Two of the Western Division Arena Swimming League held in Weston-super-Mare.

Chard led straight from the start and maintained a comfortable lead over the other five teams competing, gaining 43 top three positions in the 50 events, with an outstanding 17 first positions.

This performance enabled them to finish first overall, 46 points clear of the rest of the field.

Traders' leader calls for 'passion'

LISA Lyman's Axminster Chamber of Commerce revolution continues with the decision to open up membership to non-business people.

The new criteria for membership is "feeling passionately" about Axminster and more will be explained during an open meeting of the chamber this week.

Mrs Lyman took over as chairman in September from stalwart Shane Morgan, who was in charge for almost five years.

Having worked for a chamber of commerce in the United States, Mrs Lyman introduced major changes based on her Stateside experience.

Issuing the meeting invitation, she added: "Now is the time for you to get involved. We all feel passionately about Axminster and it's time to shout about its heritage, its unique independent businesses, its market and, most of all, its very strong community."

"Everyone is strapped for time and cash, but the more people involved, the more successful we will be at making it happen."

"We strongly believe that the Axminster chamber should also be a community organisation, so we are opening up membership to people who feel passionately about Axminster but don't have a business."

Giving a progress report of the chamber's work since she became its leader, Mrs Lyman said: "These are very exciting times as we have so many ideas for bringing together businesses and the community to improve not only Axminster's businesses but its community and economy."

"We are investigating a tourist 'Brown Sign' on the A35 directing people to our historic market town and new Welcome to Axminster signs."

A full update will be available at the meeting as part of the chamber's new Programme of Work.

Members are expected to participate on at least one team and members of the community who would like to be involved, should contact the chamber.

From the editor's chair Passion is what we need

ALTHOUGH there are distinct signs that the economy is picking up, these are still difficult times for local traders.

But Lisa Lyman, the new chairman of Axminster Chamber of Commerce, is doing her best to encourage local businesses to "get passionate" about their town and in a most unique move is planning to turn the chamber into a community organisation and open its ranks to non-traders.

Mrs Lyman has experience of working with chambers of commerce in America where they have much more clout than they do in this country.

The Axminster chamber has been through some very tough times in recent years and the trading community owes much to former chairman Shane Morgan for keeping the organisation ticking over during that time.

I know how hard that is as I spent a short while as acting chairman before Fred Wells took over the reins several years ago.

I've always believed that a strong chamber is essential to keep the trading community vibrant and Mrs Lyman is certainly ringing the changes.

Let's hope that the town responds to her rallying call to show a bit of passion for their town. Axminster has much to offer and I've always advocated that we should be shouting about its attributes from the top of The Minster tower.

◆ ALTHOUGH funding is very difficult also for local authorities, news that Seaton Town Council is still pressing ahead with plans to regenerate the seafront should be welcomed by residents.

The town council has set aside around £45,000 (£38,000 still available) to progress the scheme and hopefully a further £10,000 will come from East Devon District Council to provide a gateway to the town centre from the sea.

And whilst funding is not available for a full pedestrianised scheme, the council is moving ahead with a possible "quick win" option by making part of The Esplanade traffic free.

This should be viewed as a positive step.

COLYTON

Awards for school science teachers

TWO physics teachers from Colyton Grammar School have picked up top awards and been praised for encouraging more girls into science.

Louise Fitzhenry and Sarah Usher picked up Institute of Physics (IOP) Teacher Awards at a ceremony in London on Friday, November 15th. Louise and Sarah attended the ceremony to receive their awards from Dr Frances Saunders, President of IOP.

The two teachers have been recognised in particular for enabling and encouraging a high proportion of girls to study physics alongside their general teaching excellence.

Dr Saunders said: "With the subject of physics in schools having long suffered from the participation of too few girls, it's a delight to be able to reward these two excellent teachers for the difference they are making."

The teachers' award citation reads: "Sarah and Louise are exceptional teachers who love physics and create an enthusiasm and passion for the subject in the students that they teach. Both have a talent for making physics relevant and fun."

"Their active, energetic and inventive teaching uses real world examples and applications and opens students' eyes to the possibilities that studying physics provides."

"This is reflected in exceptional results at GCSE and beyond that, the number of students, particularly young women, who are inspired to go on to study the subject at A-level."

The event, organised to celebrate the success of scientists, teachers and leaders of high-tech businesses, was held at The Lancaster Hotel.

SIDMOUTH

Mixed outcome at footpath appeal

A GOVERNMENT planning inspector has ruled that two footpaths at Knowle, Sidmouth, should be designated as public rights of way.

In April last year, Knowle Residents' Association (KRA) asked Devon County Council (DCC) to designate several footpaths on the Knowle campus as public rights of way.

But the application was refused in June this year, so KRA lodged an appeal with The Planning Inspectorate.

However, the inspector ruled that two footpaths - one of which follows the line of the main driveway from Station Road to the office buildings, and the other via the rear service entrance from Knowle Drive - should be designated.

The land in question is owned by East Devon District Council (EDDC) and planning inspector Sue Arnott said in her report: "The application which led to this appeal appears to have been prompted by local concern over future public access to Knowle following consultations by EDDC on revisions to its local plan suggesting proposals for development of the site for housing."

"It is the appellant's case that the written statements from claimants shows that use by the public went unchallenged for over twenty years such that rights of way on foot should be presumed to have been dedicated by the owner of the land concerned."

SEATON

Council quick win move on seafront

PLANS to make part of The Esplanade traffic free are being considered by Seaton Town Council as a "quick win" option for developing the seafront.

Funds are not available to deliver a full pedestrianised scheme for The Esplanade, as part of the on-going seafront regeneration scheme, but Devon County Council have indicated that they are willing to discuss the possibility of closing The Esplanade to traffic from Fisherman's Gap to Beach Road.

Seaton Town Council was asked to lead the project in June of last year and in November a number of drop-in sessions were held to get feedback from the public after a presentation was made at a town meeting.

At that time, a spokesperson for the council said: "The aim is to provide a gateway to the town centre from the sea and a 'crossroads' leading to Seaton's attractions, as well as improving business opportunity, better links between town and beach and connections between different types of transport - notably walking, cycling, tramway, bus, boat and road."

Since then the town council has commissioned a report from a consultant, Claire Fear from Exeter-based Architectural Thread Limited, which details how the regeneration of the seafront could be carried out in phases - seawall, beach piers and sea walk; Fisherman's Gap; and The Esplanade.

The town council set aside £38,000 toward the cost of the work, having spent £7,000 on consultants, and East Devon District Council, owners of the beach, also indicated they would contribute £10,000.

An update on the plans was given to members of the town council at their November meeting, after which the Mayor, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, issued the following statement:

"One option is to consider closing the Esplanade to traffic from Fisherman's Gap to Beach Road. Funds are not currently available to deliver a proper pedestrianised scheme but DCC are willing to discuss the principle of such a road closure. Further public consultation would be undertaken before deciding on the way forward."

Hospice plans on show

HOSPISCARE'S roadshow came to the Church Rooms in Axminster last month. The charity is set to build a day hospice for East Devon in King Street, Honiton. The roadshow aims to inform members of the public and attract fundraising. Hospiscare's Sarah Smith said that £250,000 must be raised and the plan is to have the new facility completed at some point during summer 2014. Sarah is pictured with Axminster town crier Nick Goodwin and mayor Jeremy Walden. The roadshow also included stops in West Hill, Ottery and Honiton. You don't have to go to Exeter for AA meetings

ALCOHOLICS Anonymous (AA) has stressed that people do not have to go to Exeter for help as there are weekly meetings in Honiton, Axminster, Seaton, Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary.

AA issued the reminder as part of Alcohol Awareness Week (November 18th-24th) and encouraged those who think they have a problem to seek help.

A spokesperson said: "AA is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common drinking problem and help others to achieve sobriety."

"East Devon meetings occur on a weekly basis in Honiton, Axminster, Seaton, Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary in addition to 15 in Exeter."

"If you think AA could help either you or someone you know, find out more by visiting www.devonaa.org.uk or call the helpline on 01752 791111 or 0845 76975555."

"Our helpline number is manned by members who will talk to anyone who believes he or she has a problem with alcohol. Contact can be made by a local member if required and attendance at a meeting can be arranged."

Amycrofters choose new charity

"On Friday, December 6th Father Christmas will be at Ottery St Mary's Brainwave shop, and on Saturday, December 7th at the Honiton shop.

"He will be there especially to meet the children, with the Amycrofters music playing in the background."

"You will be able to get photos taken and buy a lucky dip."

"All the money raised by The Amycrofters will go directly to the charity."

Axminster Naval couple are helping the typhoon victims

A HUSBAND and wife from Axminster both serve on warship HMS Daring, assisting the relief effort in the Philippines.

Sailors on the Royal Navy destroyer have delivered vital aid to remote islands and helped with crucial repair works to demolished buildings, battered fishing vessels and blocked roads.

Royal Navy dental nurse Debbie Imm, 32, and husband band corporal Adrian Imm, 33, of the Royal Marines Band Plymouth, were drafted to the ship separately as part of her nine-month round the world deployment. Debbie deployed as one of a three-person dental team while Adrian is part of a 13-man team sent to assist in high profile events such as HMS Daring's presence at the Royal Australian Navy's 100th anniversary celebrations in Sydney.

A Navy spokesperson said: "Both jobs only require them to be onboard for a short period of time so it was particularly opportune for the pair, who have been together since secondary school, to serve together."

Debbie said: "I found out two days before Adrian joined the ship in September that I was due to come out as well as part of the dental team.

"It was brilliant news for us, very exciting. Our initial thoughts were for our three daughters, but two started boarding school that month and the youngest is staying with her grandparents until I get home.

"I was only due to be away for a month but, with the diversion to aid with the Philippines, it will probably be a while longer before I can leave.

"It is our first time on a ship together and it has worked really well, everyone is very nice about it although there is a bit of teasing in the mess as you would expect."

Debbie and Adrian met at the Woodroffe School in Lyme

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Regis where a mutual love of music brought them together. When Adrian left following his A-Levels and joined the Royal Marine Band Service in 1999, Debbie followed suit and joined a year later – both playing the same instruments of a clarinet and viola.

Debbie recalled: "We even sat next to each other as part of the band as we play the same instruments.

"When I joined the ship in Singapore it was really nice because we had a few days together out there and, as we have three children, that is quite rare so it was very special for us."

Following the birth of their first daughter, Debbie left the Band Service and then later joined the Royal Navy as a dental nurse.

'I love my job'

She explained: "My brother-in-law is in the Army Dental Corps and he showed me how it all worked and it seemed like something I would really like to do and I was right – I absolutely love my job."

"Adrian played as part of the band at my passing out parade in 2010, which made it really special.

Both are qualified first aiders and can be called upon to offer medical care as part of a team if the ship required them to go ashore to help villagers in the Philippines. As HMS Daring has a team of doctors from Save The Children onboard it hasn't yet been necessary, but both are ready to use their skills if needed.

"We are willing to do anything we can to help," added

Debbie. HMS Daring is the first in class of the Royal Navy's six new Type 45 destroyers which are the largest and most powerful destroyers ever built for the Navy.

A Portsmouth-based air defence warship, she is two thirds of the way through a nine-month deployment and was taking part in an exercise with Australia, New Zealand, Singapore and Malaysia as part of the Five Powers Defence Arrangement when she was retasked to the Philippines.

HMS Daring has already loaded aid at the port of Cebu and has begun to distribute among communities on remote islands that were devastated by the typhoon, destroying homes, crops, schools, community centres, water wells and generators.

The Navy spokesperson added: "The aid donated by the Department for International Development (DFID) consisted of 500 food baskets which can feed a family of four for a week, 500 family shelter kits, 500 hygiene kits, 1500 four litre water carriers and 400 five litre water carriers.

"They also embarked a team of 14 medics from Save The Children."

HMS Daring herself can also provide 700 ration packs, 550 litres of bottled water and can produce 100,000 litres of potable water within 24 hours, generators, firefighting equipment, thermal imaging cameras and an emergency relief pack containing essentials such as generators, floodlighting and rescue equipment.

On board she has electrical and mechanical engineers, a doctor and medical team, first aiders, dentist, priest, heavy equipment specialists, air crews and boat crews. All 200 personnel on board are also trained in humanitarian aid and disaster relief.

■ COUPLE ON BOARD: Adrian and Debbie Imm pictured on HMS Daring

The Navy spokesperson concluded: "So far the ship has visited four islands and offloaded much of the stores to help the villagers get back on their feet."

Was this girl victim of a sick craze called 'knockout'?

THE people who punched a young girl to the ground in Axminster must be caught, police say.

In what is described as "an unprovoked attack", the girl suffered a swollen, black eye.

A police spokesperson said: "The female aggrieved was walking along Silver Street on her own to a friend's address when a group of three males approached her on Tuesday November between 6.30pm and 7pm.

"She was punched once to the face, which caused her to fall to the floor.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"The males then ran off.

"She received a swollen, blackened eye from the assault.

"The group members are described as teens or early twenties all wearing hooded tops.

"This was an unprovoked attack on a lone female and the persons involved need to be located." There have been no other reported cases, but Pulman's View has been contacted by a number of people claiming as many as three teenage girls were randomly attacked in and around the town centre last week.

They fear the attacks were part of a sick 'game' called knockout, in which lone pedestrians are randomly attacked.

The so-called game originates in the US and the aim is to knock the victim unconscious with one punch.

The police statement did not make reference to the so-called game, but anyone with information about the assault last week are asked to call PC 452 Fisher at Honiton Police Station on 101.

Revised plan for Webster's eyesore

A REVISED planning application to create a car park on the Webster's site in Axminster was about to be submitted when Pulman's View went to press yesterday (Monday).

The site owner's agent, Graham Barton, told Pulman's View on Friday November 22nd that the application was ready to be submitted.

Hallmark Estates, the Plymouth-based owner of the derelict building, submitted but then withdrew a planning application earlier this year, seeking permission to provide parking space for 60 cars, five motorcycles and five bicycles for up to five years.

The revised application is not significantly different to the original one, but addresses a number of "street scene" issues raised by East Devon District Council.

When the first application was submitted, the aim was to have the car park up and running for Christmas.

That won't happen and when asked when the car park will be ready, Mr Barton would not speculate.

He said: "We learnt with the last application that unexpected things can arise."

BENEFICIARIES: The cheques have just been presented by Carnival President John Jeffery

Carnival hand out £1,400

Axminster Carnival has donated a total of more than £1,400, raised during this year's carnival.

The presentation was held on Monday November 18th at Axminster Inn, with nine organisations receiving varying amounts.

They were; Rotary Club of Axminster, Axminster Scouts, Karizma Majorettes, ARC Counselling Service, Axminster Guildhall, Axminster United Charities, Rainbow Playgroup, Force Cancer Charity and Axminster Youth Club.

Axminster Carnival vice-chairman Ron Jones said: "The carnival committee would like to thank sponsors and the public who donated money.

"Without your help there would be no carnival.

"Did you know that Axminster Carnival was first held on May 24th 1900 and is one of the longest in years on the east Devon circuit?"

He also said that it cost more than £4,000 to organise this year's carnival.

Most of the money is raised from Monday evening bingo sessions in the guildhall, and he urged people to come along for eyes down at 8pm.

Mr Jones concluded: "I would like to thank all carnival members, past and present, for their help over the years."

It is Axminster's turn to host the East Devon Carnival Presentation this year.

The event will be in Axminster Guildhall on Friday November 29th.

A big show, a big success ...

THEATRE REVIEW

by Philip Evans

Kiss Me Kate

Axminster Operatic Society
Axminster Guildhall

BIG, they say, is beautiful. This would seem to certainly be the case in the selection of shows in recent times by Axminster Operatic Society.

Formed in 1926 when they performed "HMS Pinafore", the society built its reputation on performing the full repertoire of light operetta – but it's a very different story these days.

Just look at the list of productions in the past five years – 2008 – "Hello Dolly"; 2009 – "My Fair Lady"; 2010 – "Show Boat"; 2011 – "Annie Get Your Gun"; 2012 – "Anything Goes" – all of them smash hits with local audiences.

And their choice for 2013 was no exception – another Broadway blockbuster – Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate", which attracted near sell-out audiences at Axminster Guildhall and enhanced the society's reputation of never being afraid to stretch their talent to the limits.

Even chairman Barry Marshall, in his programme notes, referred to the direction taken by the society in the past few years and the move away from operetta, commenting that the continuing support of their "faithful audiences" was proof that "we are getting it right and this year I am sure we have done it again".

No one who was present at the Guildhall last week would argue with that.

■ ONE of the impressive dancer routines from "Kiss me Kate", a highlight of the show by Axminster Operatic Society

Photos by PETER WILES

First performed in 1948, "Kiss Me Kate" proved to be Cole Porter's biggest hit.

The story revolves the production of a musical version of William Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew by the Baltimore Players and the conflict on and off-stage between "Fred Graham," the show's director, producer, and star, and his leading lady, his ex-wife and diva "Lilli Vanessi." A secondary romance concerns Lois Lane, the actress playing Bianca, and her gambler boyfriend, Bill, who falls foul to some gangsters.

From curtain up and a rip-roaring start with Cole Porter's classic "Another Op'nin', Another Show", the cast threw themselves into the action with gusto with some impressive dance routines, strong chorus work and delightful renditions of some of Porter's favourite compositions, including "Wunderbar", "I Hate Men" and "Too Darn Hot".

Top class show

Director and choreographer Denise Churchett, a former Tiller and Bluebell girl, and musical director Rob Preece, who has spent a lifetime in the amateur theatre, will have been well pleased with how their charges responded to their encouragement and coaching. This was another top class show.

It's a challenging production, particularly as the play within the play develops with some cast members in effect having to perform two parts as members of the Baltimore Players and with roles in "The Taming of The Shrew".

In particular, "Kiss Me Kate" demands much of the two leading players – "Lilli Vanessi", the diva, and her former husband and leading man "Fred Graham". The part of "Lilli" might well have been written for Vanessa Cross, the society's most experienced leading lady who used her 30 years on the Axminster stage to good effect to produce yet another powerful and impressive performance. And as "the Shrew", she certainly took some taming!

The role of "Fred" was taken by Neil Wells, who has played opposite Vanessa on no less than seven occasions and their rapport on stage was obvious. A seasoned performer on the musical stage, performing in at least two shows every year, Neil had played this part before and look entirely comfortable in the role, with a strong stage presence and featuring in some brilliantly timed encounters with "Lilli" as they fought their battles whilst engaged in "The Taming of The Shrew" dialogue. His was a performance of the highest calibre.

Yet another top class portrayal came from the talented Kelly Apps, who took the role of the coquettish "Lois Lane", raising temperatures all round with her flirtatious manner and tantalising costumes. And as always, her vocal numbers, especially "Always True To You In My Fashion", were among the high points in the production.

Luckiest man of stage was new boy Adam Chudley in his first major role with the society, playing the part of gambler "Bill Calhoun", who was led a merry dance by "Lois" before being rewarded with a passionate embrace before the end of the show. Adam lacked nothing in confidence and looks to have a promising future on the amateur stage.

Another highlight of the show for me was the contribution from Jerry Holt as the brash American General Harrison Howell, a cigar chomping lothario with strong connections to the White House who tried to plan his hoped-for marriage to "Lilli" with military precision.

Tom Matthews impressed as "Fred's" dresser, producing one of the musical highlights of the evening with his rendition of "Too Darn Hot", and Nick Bussian and Roly Kelly added much to the enjoyment of the show with their portrayal of the two gangsters who ended up joining the cast to recover "Bill's" gambling debts.

Strong support also came from the other principal players – Anette Deem, Tony Reader, Tom Lowe, David Adams, Margaret Lewis, Barry Marshall, Brian Cursley, Ted Churchett, Ian Craig, Maureen Yell and Lou Pottinger.

Dancers Susie Gamble, Sarah Pottinger and Chloe Pottinger should also take a bow for keeping the action flowing throughout.

Yet again, Axminster Operatic Society proved with "Kiss Me Kate" they have the confidence and talent to tackle the big Broadway and West End shows – and next year they will test their resolve once more with "Jesus Christ Superstar".

Teachers ask pupils 'Would I Lie to You?'

THE senior prefect team at Colyton Grammar School organised a staff versus student panel game last week to support Children in Need.

Staff and pupils went head to head in their own version of television show "Would I Lie To You?", with the teachers coming out on top and raising £325.30 for the charity.

The teams were Mr Banks from the languages department, history teacher Miss Westhead and drama teacher Mrs Brownley, with Libby Norman, Walter Goodwin and Jai Lake competing for the sixth form.

The game was presented by assistant headteacher Mr Bush and student Cai Sutherland.

Headteacher Paul Evans commented: "Once again the resourcefulness and hard work of the senior prefect team in leading the effort deserves great praise."

A non-uniform day at the school raised a further £653.50, making a grand total of £978.80 for Children in Need.

Primary students learn about Hindu festival of Diwali

CHILDREN at Colyton Primary School recently learnt about the Hindu festival of Diwali.

A variety of special events were held all week for the pupils to take part in, including a visit by Indian Cultural Champion Sandhya Dave who held workshops with each class. She told children about the Diwali story of Rama and Sita and students then re-enacted the tale. The children also learnt classical Indian dances and Bollywood dances.

They learnt how to cook Indian dishes, thanks to Mrs Patel from Premier Stores in Colyton, and parents were invited to bring in their own Indian dishes for a Diwali Indian Feast at the end of the school day.

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is a five-day festival and one of the most important events on the calendar for Hindu families.

Christmas concert for the Salvation Army

A magic box that keeps a child alive

To date, people of the world have donated more than £200 million for the Philippines victims of Typhoon Haiyan, of which more than £40 million has come from UK donors and another £50 million from the British Government.

In addition, the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank are giving £650 million in grants and emergency loans.

But for the four million Filipinos who lost everything in the hellstorm, it will not be enough.

Why? Because coping with a natural disaster isn't just for Christmas – it takes years, years, for a devastated area to recover.

And while the poor souls of Tacloban, the Philippines' worst-hit city, can probably get by for that long before KFC is rebuilt, they won't last a week without water.

In Haiti, aid agencies were still carrying in water two years after the earthquake of 2010 levelled the island and destroyed the clean water supply.

Clean water is the most essential relief wherever there is a disaster on the planet. Food and shelter run a close second but it's water that makes the difference between life or, as detailed below, a grotesque death.

The dangers of drinking waste water after a disaster should be obvious, but in case they are not, here they are: typhoid, cholera, e-coli, leptospirosis and hepatitis E; each one comes with a free ride to the morgue.

Devon, Dorset & Somerset Newspapers Limited, the publishers of this newspaper, have committed to a two-year charity campaign in association with the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge because there, at the little Somerset town of Midsomer Norton, they have ingeniously developed an ideal solution to this problem of how long it takes after a disaster for clean water to run through the pipes again.

It's called The Water Survival Box and it's just that – a plastic box crammed with all that you need to stay alive

Providing water for life

WATER SURVIVAL BOX

Supported by Pulman's View View From Newspapers and
The Weekender Series

By Geoff Baker

after you have lost everything; cooking and eating utensils, basic means of shelter, all sorts of essential bits and bobs, and, most importantly, a simple water-purification system that will provide a family of four with clean water every day for a year. You can read more about it at www.worldwaterworks.org but it's simple – pour in waste water and clean water comes out, like magic.

The boxes cost £150 to fit out and send to disaster zones; a hundred and fifty quid to keep a family alive for a year.

Since Typhoon Haiyan struck, Chelwood Bridge's Hugo Pike and his team of tireless Rotarians have been working flat out packing and shipping Water Survival Boxes to the Philippines. But stocks are running low, and although donations are thankfully coming in, more and more boxes are going to be needed in the long time it will take yet before clean water is running again.

Because for us clean water is such a given, guaranteed to be always there whenever we turn on a tap, it is difficult to imagine life without it. It is harder still to imagine what it feels like to be without it.

But this is the reality of what happens when an earthquake, tsunami or typhoon takes out the water supply:

Because of disasters, every 20 seconds somewhere in the world a child aged under five dies of dehydration. Let's count them as we explore what it feels like to endure the 7-10 days that it takes to die of thirst. Here's what doctors expertly say:

"As dehydration begins, you become very tired. You can't urinate easily and when you can your urine is dark brown; later, as it concentrates, you can't urinate at all and your bladder will burn. You want to cry but there is no liquid in you for tears.

"Then a severely-painful headache starts. Your mouth dries and becomes caked with thick saliva, your tongue swells and cracks, your eyes recede into their sockets, the lining cracks in your nose (ONE DEAD) and it begins to bleed.

"You start to feel dizzy and then seizures begin. Your heart starts to race and so does your breathing, you are panting as your blood pressure drops. Terrible cramps attack your arms and legs, you cannot stand nor sit down. Your temperature rises, you feel very hot because you cannot sweat. You feel nauseous but can only dry-heave, and then the cramps painfully attack your stomach

"Your skin hangs loose, dries and becomes scaly, your muscles become spastic. Then, as your brain cells (TWO DEAD) dry out, you start convulsing. Your eyesight fades, thick secretions begin to plug your lungs, you struggle to breathe. You become more and more exhausted, you may hallucinate. Then seizures grip the body and you fall into a coma and your heart stops."

As Dr. David Stevens, a US physician who has seen thousands die of thirst during 13 years in Africa, says: "Contrary to those that try to paint a picture of a gentle process, death by dehydration is a cruel, inhumane and often agonising death."

Every day, (THREE DEAD) 4,109 children die of thirst like that because natural disasters like hurricanes, earthquakes and flooding have left them with no clean water.

That's 171 every hour, three a minute, dying like that.

Every minute of every day, three children die like that; tongue cracked, nose bleeding, convulsed in agony. Children are dying like that in the Philippines now, for want of a Water Survival Box.

As it happens, right now is the best time to donate at www.worldwaterworks.org because (FOUR DEAD) for a 13-day window from December 5-18 every £1 donated online will be doubled to £2 under an initiative by the Reed Foundation called The Big Give Challenge.

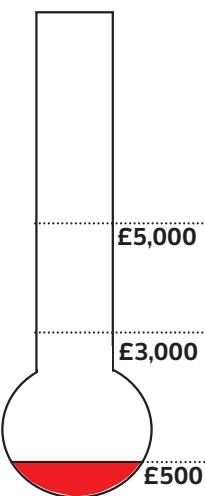

"What would you do if you'd lost everything in a disaster?" asks Hugo Pike.

One answer, I suppose, would be to hope than somebody like you is reading this.

Because in six more seconds, a FIFTH child will have agonisingly died from the lack of clean water.

◆ In a bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset, where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week, to organise an event for Water Survival Box. Our staff are also planning a number of fundraising events and so far we have raised £500. If you would like to organise an event, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will help promote your event in our columns.

The 'Christmas Shopping Challenge' will start from Saturday 16th November and run until Christmas Eve.

The Challenge invites children and adults to 'Decorate a Christmas tree' by collecting 10 colourful bauble stickers. The stickers will be available from participating independent retailers. When the tree is complete a child can present it at any of the participating retailers for it to be validated (to confirm they have redeemed their prize). Then they will be rewarded with a certificate of completion and, for the first 500 children, a small gift.

Adults are also encouraged to complete the Challenge by shopping in at least 10 of the participating independent retailers during the 5 week promotion. When they have completed the Challenge, they will be entered into a Draw to win one of several great prizes from Sidmouth organisations:

Private lesson with Sidmouth Golf Club's professional; 4 tickets for the Radway Cinema; 4 tickets to Sidmouth Amateur Dramatic Society's Pantomime Aladdin; Canvas Print from Sidmouth Print; Voucher from Aspara; £25 vouchers from Fields; Birthday balloon from Coles (to be used when needed); Month's membership to Sidmouth's Leisure Centre; Gifts from Goviers; Family swim passes to Sidmouth's pool.

The purpose of the Challenge is to encourage people to shop in their local independent shops where they will get a lovely choice of products coupled with excellent service. For every £1 you spend with a local, independent business, between 50p-70p circulates back into your local economy. Shopping locally supports local traders, their suppliers and the people they depend on to run their businesses. Buying locally boosts your local economy, rebuilding confidence in the community, enabling local businesses to prosper and grow.

Shopping online or out-of-town may save you a little time but for every £1 you spend, only 5p trickles back into your local economy. When you shop with your local independents you are doing 'your bit' to keep your high street, town or village centre 'open for business'. Sadly it really is a case of 'use it or lose it.'

Support your local independent business!

Retired RAF Captain entertains Legion ladies from Axminster

GROUP Captain Brian Lavender RAF (retired), from Kilmington Royal British Legion, entertained the ladies from Axminster Royal British Legion Women's Section at their November meeting with potted history of his exploits.

Members learnt that Brian's parents were both in the Royal Flying Corps and his father worked as a mechanic at Croydon Airport. After being bombed out in 1940, the family relocated to Kilmington, where Brian's father had lived during the 1920s.

His father remained in London whilst Brian and his siblings attended the local primary before going onto Exeter School.

One of the Legion members, Stella Brown, who grew up in Kilmington and knew the family well, recalled fond memories of the family.

At 16 Brian flew solo in a Glider at Exeter Airport, joined the RAF at 18 and was posted to RAF Turnhill for basic training. Having obtained his "wings", he was posted to RAF Chivenor and then onto RAF Germany.

Air planes from a bygone era evoked happy times, including the Vampire, F86 Sabre, Hawker Hunter, Dakota to name only a few from the many mentioned by Brian.

One of Brian's favourite postings was as Flight Lt to Khartoum in the Sudan to work with the Sudanese Air Force, eventually being promoted to Squadron Leader to the Flying Instructors School.

Other highlights of a long and chequered career included India, 29 Squadron in Norfolk, Virginia, a spell in the Falklands, Norway and the MOD in London, completing a career spanning 47 years.

Brian's enduring faith has been his mainstay over the years and he's still very much involved with the local church, St Giles, in Kilmington.

The Legion would like to give their thanks to Brian for an informative and much enjoyed talk on his life with the RAF, particularly appreciated by the president, ex-WAAF Audrey Lanchbery.

During the business side of the evening, members were reminded of the Women's Section's Annual Conference in Tiverton in mid-November and the Christmas lunch at Hunter's Lodge on December 6th, to which members of the branch have been invited.

The Christmas party on December 13th will be held in the Senior Citizens' Rooms and members from Uplyme and Honiton have been invited to attend. The next meeting is on January 10th, weather permitting.

Colyford Flower Club hold annual meeting

COLYFORD Flower Club held its annual general meeting and lunch on Tuesday, November 5th at Colyford Memorial Hall.

The meeting was attended by about 80 members who were served lunch prepared by Connie Hartnell and her team, followed by sweets prepared by members of the committee.

The meeting followed the lunch with chairman

Pam Forrester Addie welcoming everyone and giving thanks to Connie and the committee for their efforts.

She went on to say that it had been a successful year for the club and a trip to Bournemouth National Show was enjoyed by everyone attending. It was also noted that the club had lost some members this year and it would be good to boost the membership.

Prizes were awarded to winners of the competition throughout the year, with the novice prize going to Kay White, intermediate to Angie Clark and advanced to Jean Underdown. All members were thanked for entering the competition but it was felt more should have a go.

The competition for the next meeting on Tuesday, December 3rd at 2.15pm is "A Christmas Door Adornment" and the title of the demonstration is "Christmas".

Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of the month at Colyford Memorial Hall and new members are always welcome.

theWI Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

THE November meeting of Seaton WI was held on Tuesday 19th at the Methodist Church Hall, Seaton.

President Ann Attridge opened the meeting by welcoming everyone saying how nice it was to see so many members.

This was followed by "Jerusalem", accompanied by Mary Fone. Arrangements for all the forthcoming events were then finalised, including a trip to Gloucester Quays Victorian Christmas Market, the resolution meeting at Sidmouth and Christmas lunch at the Blue Ball, Sidford.

Two quiz teams recently represented Seaton WI at the group quiz held at the Dolphin Hotel, Beer. Congratulations were given to all who took part in a really enjoyable evening - one of the teams came second and lost out by just two points.

After tea and biscuits, members enjoyed an illustrated talk by Mary Benger of Burrows Farm Gardens, entitled "Gardening made Easier". Mary gave guidance as to how, by the use of different materials for landscaping and different plants for different situations, to make gardening a pleasure. The slides showed a wonderful example of what can be achieved with planning. The vote of thanks was given by Heather Marraner.

Flower of the Month results were as follows: 1st Denise England, 2nd Jan Probert, 3rd Joy Taylor. The competition for best plant was won by Sheila Rumble.

The next meeting is the Christmas party on December 17th at the Methodist Hall, 2pm. New Members are always very welcome.

HONITON AFTERNOON

AT the November meeting, the ladies of Honiton Afternoon WI welcomed Dr Don Archer, who gave an illustrated talk on the life of John Betjeman.

Members were told that John Betjeman was born in 1906 and spent his early life in the Highgate area of London. One of the early poems he had written as a young schoolboy was read to the meeting and during the course of the talk members listened to a number of extracts from the poems he had written throughout his life.

Following his time at Oxford University his career was very varied and included working for the BBC, the Ministry of Information during the Second World War, and with a friend he developed the Shell Guide for Motorists.

He was well known for his great interest in Victorian architecture and, in particular, the work he did to save St Pancras Station where now the famous John Betjeman statue is on display.

He and his family had always been very fond of Cornwall and he was living there at his home in Trebetherick when he died from Parkinson's Disease in 1984. He is buried half a mile away in St Enodoc's churchyard where his memorial stone can be seen.

Members felt that it had been a most interesting and enjoyable meeting.

The next meeting is on December 9th at 2pm in the Methodist Chapel, when members will be having a Christmas party. Prior to this date they will be starting their seasonal celebrations with a Christmas lunch at the Otter Inn.

COLYTON

There was excellent attendance for the November meeting of Colyton WI, plus two visitors.

The president Jean Hutton dealt with the business, which included arrangements for the Christmas lunch on December 11th, Book Club and CWICS (Colyton WI Craft Section). The Lunch Club had been successful and a further date would be arranged for January.

Jean Underdown gave an enthusiastic account of the DFWI Council Meeting in Plymouth.

Looking ahead, 2015 is the centenary celebration for the NFWI. Devon Federation is hoping to create a centenary wall hanging and there will be a Baton Relay all over the country. Members are hoping to join the Seaton group of WIs for the proposed lunch and viewing of the centenary annual meeting celebrations.

Jacky Roberts Wakes, Joan Garner and Joan McDougall had all organised craft tables for members to produce Christmas hangings, which will be used on the Colyton WI Christmas tree as part of the Christmas Tree Festival in St Andrew's Church, Colyton from December 4th to 7th.

Competition results were as follows: Christmas card - 1st Penny Cogan, 2nd Joan McDougall and 3rd Brenda Clark; Last rose of summer - 1st Penny Cogan, 2nd Barbara Cumming and 3rd Liz Lucas.

There will be no meeting in December. The next will be on the third Tuesday of January in the St John Hall, Colyton.

AXMOUTH

THE president of Axmouth WI Denise Gaits welcomed everyone to their latest meeting.

Beauty pampering days, writing competitions, whist days and quiz nights were discussed. It was also reported that the church Christmas Flower Festival would commence on December 14th.

The Next Food Craft & Skills session will be held on December 2nd, when members will make Christmas candle decorations and wreaths.

Yvonne Johnson gave a fascinating talk on textiles in the 21st century. Members were shocked to learn how many tons of clothes were sent to landfill.

Yvonne takes great pride in rummaging around charity shops and buying woolen jumpers, fleeces and scarves, taking them home and dyeing them in various colours and transforming them into something completely different.

Many items of various clothing were passed around the group for members to examine, giving them many ideas on how to recycle their own clothes rather than throwing them out.

Yvonne is a member of the Devon Artists Studio and exhibits her clothes at the Gloss Gallery in Exeter.

Flower of the Month prizes were as follow: 1st Jacqui Lewis, 2nd and 3rd Pat Tresize.

Competition results: 1st Norman Sweetland, 2nd Pat Tresize, 3rd Lynn Allison.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party.

BRANSCOMBE

OLYMPIC eventer Mary King signed her autobiography at Branscombe Village Hall during a meeting of Branscombe WI, who had invited Beer WI to this interesting talk by Mary about her life.

She told members how horses became her passion after her father got a job as verger in Salcombe Regis after recovering from a serious brain injury. The vicar just happened to own a pony and Mary quickly became hooked on riding!

She left school at 16 to work at prestigious stables where she learnt to school horses. After three years she returned home and rented farm buildings where she began to school and sell her own horses. During this time she continued to ride and take part in eventing herself.

One day, Mary was offered £20,000 for a horse she had trained but decided instead to ride him herself because she would rather be famous than rich!

Eventually she became part of the British equestrian team with Zara Philips. Together they took part in three Olympics winning both bronze and silver.

She still hopes one day for Britain to win gold and that she might still be a part of it.

OFFWELL

Offwell WI president Vanessa Smith welcomed members and friends to the November meeting in the village hall.

A report was given on the spring council meeting in Plymouth where the speaker, Toyah Willcox, was most entertaining.

Future events included the plans for the Christmas dinner, the trip to the Victorian market at Gloucester Quays, the carol service at Exeter Cathedral and the hosting of the WI quiz early in the New Year.

The speaker was Rosie Beer, who gave a fascinating demonstration entitled "Baubles and Bows", showing how to make Christmas cake decorations.

She kept her audience enthralled whilst rolling and shaping royal icing into lovely plaits, flowers and holly leaves which transformed a simple cake into a beautiful creation.

She brought several examples of her skill in icing on delicious-looking cup cakes and everyone could only marvel at the display.

Annette gave the vote of thanks and everyone enjoyed refreshments and a chat to end the evening.

No further meetings until January but new members are always welcome.

Remember a loved one this Christmas

HOSPISCARE is inviting people to remember their loved ones during a remembrance service to be held at St Mary's Church, Axminster, on Thursday, November 28th.

Formally known as Services of Light, the services are held across Exeter, mid and east Devon during November and December, giving people the chance to honour those they have lost at what can be a difficult time of year.

The services are open to anyone wishing to remember someone special who has passed away.

Those attending the Axminster service, which begins at 7.30pm, will be given a candle to light in memory of their loved one which will illuminate the altar during prayers, readings and hymns.

Hospiscare Chaplain Nigel Mason said: "Hospiscare invites us all to remember loved ones who have died and invites everyone to attend the Service of Light where candles will shine brightly in their memory."

Hospiscare support group co-ordinator Barry Carpenter said: "The run up to Christmas can be a difficult time for those who have been bereaved; we are told to have a wonderful and happy Christmas but, for some, it is a time that brings to mind how much loved ones are missed.

"Our services are there to recognise this and give comfort."

Hospiscare is also inviting people to honour lost friends and family by recording their name in a Book of Memories and dedicating a light to them on the Tree of Light, which will be lit every evening at Exeter Cathedral Green from early December until January 6th, 2014.

Barry said: "The tree will be shining every evening at dusk with the beautiful lights given in dedication.

"Our Book of Memories can be viewed at every church holding a Service of Light for us during November and December, as well as at the cathedral until Twelfth Night on January 6th."

For a full list of Services of Light or to make a dedication, visit www.hospiscare.co.uk.

The trophy was won by All Saints Primary School, with Axminster Primary School following closely behind in second place.

"A big thank you to everyone who supported the fayre."

Arts cafe goes under the sea

ONE of the former police cells at Axminster Arts Café was transformed into an underwater scene with art work created by local children during a two-day workshop.

The half-term workshop was run by Lyme Regis-based artist Darrell Wakeham.

A total of 29 children worked with cardboard, sticky tape, tissue paper and glue to create a large shark and octopus.

A cell was subsequently transformed into an underwater scene containing all of their hard work.

The installation can be seen during café opening hours.

Well it has certainly been a busy first 9 months of trading at Ottery Auction Rooms on the Finnimore Industrial Estate, Ottery St Mary. Ottery Auction Rooms conducted their first sale at the end of April 2013 and have held nine it total in as many months including 2 specialist antique and fine art sales. The team at Ottery Auction Rooms feel very honoured that Ottery St Mary has welcomed them so fervently and has used them to sell their treasured possessions however it is not only Ottery St Mary that they have to thank because they have had consignors from across the four nearest counties as well as overseas. The buyers have come in from all the West Country and beyond for the antique and general sales and all over the world for the fine art sales. The use of the internet has broadened our catchment area and puts them on the same playing field as the big auction houses.

There have been some good prices achieved this year and some interesting stories to tell. Gold and silver is up and the prices reflect this. Many people choosing to buy material gold rather than investing in the banks, literally a tangible asset and because times are hard some people are choosing to sell their gold while the price is up. The market in Chinese works of art is very good at the moment and some super prices have been achieved with £2500 for a folio of delicate works on rice paper and £1500 for a set of Victorian snooker balls that will be carved up for Chinese puzzle balls. So they feel now is a good time to dig out those Chinese artefacts because the market has almost realized its full potential and then it can only go one way. This happened years ago with the Japanese market which was very buoyant, growth was high and then dropped overnight when the Nikkei crashed, this immediately effected the luxury goods market and the Japanese stopped buying.

There have been some good stories and a few interesting finds in attics, sheds and basements. One picture destined for the jumble sale achieved £280 and an early Staffordshire lion damaged and broken heading for the same fate if not worse released £150. A mouldy old painted chest with missing handles and needing a woodworm treatment realized £70, this item was going to go on the bonfire. A Newel post and balustrades struggled to get a £5 bid in the antique sale in the next sale the lot made £90. Some people have been disappointed to find their investment in limited edition Royal Doulton collectors wall plates have not lived up to the premise they were sold them under years ago. While others have been pleasantly surprised to find that old painted metal cat that they played with as a child was miniature Bergman bronze.

So all round a positive start to the Ottery Auction Rooms venture and a big thank you to everyone who has consigned or purchased items.

Our next sale is a Christmas gifts and General on Saturday December 7th, with viewing the day before, the following sale is an Antique and Fine art sale to be held on Thursday 16th January with viewing the day before.

▲ One of a folio of Chinese paintings on paper realised £2500 plus premium

▲ Pair of Japanese Satsuma vase realised £650

THE Little Acorns Pre-School in Shute spent last Thursday doing something "super" for Children in Need.

The children and staff came in dressed as their own superhero and decorated a giant Pudsey Bear in coins.

Pre-school leader Michele, who was "Super Sticker Girl" for the day, said: "The children always love to decorate Pudsey with their coins and know that even a small amount can help someone who isn't as lucky as them."

During the day the children made Pudsey cakes with pre-school assistant Clare, aka "Super Cupcake Lady", played fun computer games on the Children in Need website, dressed Pudsey with different cut and stick activities and colouring Pudsey pictures in.

Deputy leader Emma, dressed as "Pyjama Girl", said: "This is my first Children in Need at Shute and I never thought I'd play with Buzz Lightyear, Spiderman, Tinkerbell, a super fairy and Princess Leah all in one day!"

Kilmingston Legion raises £3,300 for Poppy Appeal

■ FUNDRAISERS: Gerry Hurford and Lesley Rew organised the raffle at the coffee morning

DURING the two weeks of the Poppy Appeal this month, the Kilmingston Branch of the Royal British Legion raised nearly £3,300 in support of our wounded service personnel, their dependants and needy veterans.

A total of £1,336 came from house-to-house collections, £308 from collection boxes at village businesses and in the primary school, £356 from the collection at the joint Remembrance Service with the baptist church in the parish church of St Giles, £286 at a quiz night at the New Inn conducted by Clive Garner, and just over £1,000 from a branch coffee morning.

The branch chairman, Roger Lovegrove, and all members of the committee thanked everyone involved in organising these events and for the very generous donations from Kilmingston residents and friends.

Almost 100 entries in painting contest

THE Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch, near Axminster, recently held a children's painting competition, in which local children were encouraged to paint their family pet.

The hotel is known for its pet friendly policy and encouraged local children to take up the challenge. Close to 100 entrants painted a range of cats, dogs and horses, as well as a couple of spiders and one snail.

Well-known local artist Flavell Bevan-Arti had the job of judging the entrants. She commented: "The standard was very high. Many of the entrants have a clear talent, even at this young age and should be encouraged to develop this talent. Choosing the winner was very difficult. In fact I wish I could have chosen at least ten winners."

The overall winner was Daisy Browning from St Mary's Primary School in Thorncombe, who received a painting set and Sunday lunch at the hotel for her family.

All parents and entrants were invited to the hotel to see a selection of the entries and many are now on display at the hotel, right through until Christmas.

Pre-school supports shoebox appeal

■ THE children at Musbury Moles Pre-School have been learning about other countries and the children that live in them. As part of this project, the children decided to put together a shoebox of Christmas gifts for the Samaritans' Operation Christmas Child campaign. The youngsters brought in gifts such as dolls, jigsaws, craft sets, train sets, books (kindly donated by Boudman Books), toothbrushes and hair clips.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

ELIZABETH Lynn opens this week: "Nationally, unemployment numbers may be falling but the Job Club in Axminster – which Churches Together supports – is still in demand with visitors numbering between 20 and 30 a week.

"We are always happy to suggest further training courses which may help improve employment prospects, so we are very grateful to a volunteer who has approached us, offering to start an English conversation group for speakers of other languages. This class will be free, it will meet in one of the rooms behind the Methodist Church in Lyme Road, from 9.30am to 10.30am on a Thursday morning. Do come in and see us if you know someone interested, or you wish to take part."

The General Synod of the Church of England meets in Westminster as we go to press, with major business being a decision on the issue of women bishops, following the earlier attempt this year to reach a decision after 12 years of legal discussion. If voted through the decision will be sent to individual dioceses for approval before return to Synod for a final view.

Other business which may come to Synod will be an overhaul of its governing body to end the feeling that the members are constantly at war with themselves.

The Catholic Church appears to be revitalised with its new Pontiff, with average Sunday attendances increasing, and those who stayed away coming back.

Christmas and pre-Christmas events loom, and details of local Christmas services can be sent to Pulman's, either my phone to 01297 446154 or email.

The last paper before Christmas is December 17th, and Friday, December 13th is the final day for receipt of items such as listings for Christmas services.

Ottery is gearing up for the Christmas activities. November 20th was the Christmas Fayre during the morning in the Institute. The Christmas Tree Festival is in the parish church from November 27th to December 8th with even more trees from the various organisations and churches.

Carols and other celebrations come later in December many of them organised by churches Together in Ottery. During late shopping the parish church choir will lead the singing:

The United Reform Church in Cross Street Seaton is host to a Christmas Tree Festival from December 6th to 8th. For application form or information contact 01297 20501.

The Friends of Axmouth Church are hosting a week of events between December 14th and 21st, including music and drama. The Colyton Grammar School Choir and the Axe Valley School steel band will perform. All proceeds will assist the church fabric, including repairs and heating. Lottery funding has sadly failed.

A new vicar has been appointed for Uplyme and Axmouth – the Revd Kate Woolven moves in January from The 5 Alive Mission Community Kilmington.

The Archbishop of Canterbury advises against trying to "buy love" by giving lavish Christmas presents. He says Christmas reflects the generosity of God so we should try to show our love and fondness for others.

GRAHAM York is a dealer of rare books and the proprietor of Graham York Rare Books in High Street.

He has spent most of his life building his huge collection of printed materials, with special interest in gypsies, the history of Spain and the 19th century author George Borrow.

Graham was one of the organisers of the Honiton Antiques Festival, which took place last week, and is also the drummer in a jazz band.

WHEN did you first come to Honiton?

I have lived in and around Honiton since 1982. I initially came because of a girlfriend – the relationship didn't last but Honiton did.

HOW did you develop an interest in rare books?

I've been a book lover ever since I was a child but when a friend introduced me to gypsy music I wanted to find out more. At that time I found very little in new bookshops and libraries only had a few titles (mostly over-romantic), so I went looking around second-hand bookshops. I couldn't believe so much material existed on so many subjects, for so little money. I've built a collection over thirty years and now I've got thousands of them.

HONITON is well known for its antiques shops. What does the festival offer that is different?

The Antiques Festival has in its third year and I have been involved from the very first meeting. It focuses on bringing the antiques community together with a buzz of activity, offering unique exhibitions, talks, competitions, fairs, specialist auctions and an excuse for out-of-town visitors to pack a lot of things they might not normally do into one day.

WHAT was new for this year's festival?

This year we hosted an Antiques and Collectibles Fair on Wednesday and a Book and Printed Paper Fair on Thursday, both in Mackarness Hall. Both were over-subscribed by exhibitors.

60 seconds

DID you running any special events in your own shop?

I have put on a special exhibition each year, and this year's featured British travellers in Spain in 1587, and was packed with books, maps and prints.

WHAT is the most challenging aspect of organising the festival?

The hardest part is always raising enough money to pay for promotion. We have been fortunate enough to receive a small grant from the town council for the past two years, but advertising is expensive and we need to target customers from out of town.

YOU are also a jazz musician. How does that compare to life as a bookseller?

Both jazz music and book selling are unreliable and precarious professions and they are both threatened by modern technology. But life is never boring!

Colyton Caterpillars have a new dining hall!

WE have just created a new snack/lunch area for the children. We decided our philosophy on the importance of preparing, sharing and eating food was worth making a dedicated dining area for all the children. Children help make bread and snack, use home grown herbs, make smoothies and cook in this area.

In January we have a staff member who will be employed solely to be at the forefront of making this area a huge success.

In Italy in Reggio Emilia Schools, the kitchen/ dining room are considered the most important spaces in a school. Mealtimes "are opportunities for self-sufficiency, social interaction and friendship in an environment that supports cognitive and emotional development of the children".

Enjoy a friendly, warm atmosphere, at The Gerrard Arms

THE GERRARD Arms is a small, friendly pub in the centre of the town of Colyton. It dates back to 1506 and is one of the oldest coaching inns in town, remaining largely unchanged until 1914 when the building caught fire and the original thatched roof was lost. Later, the stables were sold off, and after several refits the pub settled into its current configuration, at the time as a Charrington House.

Once visited by none other than Lawrence of Arabia (so folklore has it), the Gerrard Arms now retains the traditional feel of a pleasant country pub, whilst offering a selection of beverages only possible in a Freehouse.

Today Dave and Kaz welcome you to their free-house to enjoy a friendly, warm atmosphere, local real ales, and a natter with the locals.

Independent Estate Agency in heart of town

WHAT an interesting year it has been for Gordon and Rumsby! Having opened a small office in Colyton in 2012, we found ourselves unexpectedly moving into a larger one in July of this year. Our new office, in one of the many Georgian buildings in the town, is in a prime position on the corner of Market Square & Queen St. Many of our visitors comment on the welcoming atmosphere as we have tried to make the place feel homely. We have an interesting selection of local art on display, so please feel free to come & take a look. As for the property market, things finally seem to be improving with October & November being the best months of the year so far, so we have great hopes for 2014. We may be a small team but our business is built on recommendation & we care for our customers & through the internet, we reach buyers worldwide. Please come & pay us a visit for advice on property matters or call us on 01297 553768. With Best Wishes for the Festive Season from Julie, Mary, Debbie and Samantha.

Loading bays will just drive people away from Colyton

■ COLYTON residents should be careful what they wish for!

The worst possible way of relieving congestion in town would be to install loading bays (Pulman's View From Colyton, November 19th). They would be empty nearly all the time and prevent people from parking, so they would no longer come into Colyton to shop - they would go to Tesco in greater numbers where they can park for free.

We now have all our shops occupied and open (or nearly ready to open in one case), so let's encourage people to come into town. A better suggestion would be to limit the parking time during the day to two or three hours, so that people can't use it as a parking lot for vehicles (many connected with businesses and others cars from holiday homes). This would only need to be enforced occasionally without notice - one ticket is enough to stop people because they can get an annual pass for the car park for £25.

We live on Market Place and our sitting room overlooks the lower end of Market Place and we cannot understand why anyone is making a fuss. No traffic jam lasts for more than a minute or two and, in any case, having a Saxon layout of roads around the church, there is no need to pass through the Market Place. I've always thought that this was an advantage of living in Colyton - if one road is closed, you can always find another route.

In my opinion, the best thing to do is nothing or we may end up with a much worse situation, especially with loading bays. Anyone who doesn't like congestion can drive round on other streets.

Let's be happy that our town has plenty of thriving shops. Let's be happy that we have a wide Market Place to allow double parking. Moaners can go and shop at Tesco. Perhaps someone could canvas the businesses and ask them politely not to park on the Market Place - it is in their best interests not to do so.

Axminster Rotary funds three ShelterBoxes

■ FOLLOWING the news of the second disaster to strike the Philippines in as many weeks, ShelterBox, who already had teams on the ground following the recent earthquake, stepped up their activity.

As of last week (commencing November 11th) over 1,300 ShelterBoxes were in the Philippines with a further 200 being assembled at ShelterBox headquarters in Helston.

We, the Rotary Club of Axminster, promptly set about fundraising and were out in the town centre on Thursday last, and Tesco Axminster offered us the opportunity to continue on Friday.

We had fantastic support on both days and wish to express the heart felt thanks to all who helped turn this activity into an overwhelming success, as a result of your generosity we are able to fund three ShelterBoxes. In addition to the activity in the town, the communities of Colyton and Stockland were also very active raising further funds, sufficient for another three ShelterBoxes.

Thank you all for your support, ShelterBox are able to offer shelter and basic survival tools to many families who lost everything.

IAN CRAWFORD,
President, Rotary Club of Axminster

Larger protests needed on East Devon developments

■ ON reading the front page of last week's paper (Pulman's View From Honiton, November 19th), I think that it's a good idea of Feniton to do what they are doing.

I think that more towns and villages in east Devon should get together and make a larger protest about the amount of houses being built in East Devon - Axminster, Seaton, Sidmouth, Honiton, Ottery St Mary plus all the odds and sods. Where are all these people going to find work? And the roads are getting busier than ever. Then we have Cranbrook and Exeter.

It's like to government is making decisions and they don't know what is going on, especially in the West Country, where they're not interested in the roads or railways.

R. PRES,
Wilmington, Honiton

Sidmouth raises £6,000 for Philippines

■ BOTH Sidmouth Rotary clubs would like to thank all those who so very generously donated to the ShelterBox Appeal to aid the people of the Philippines following the devastating disaster of Typhoon Haiyan.

Their plight, shown on news reports during the past 10 days, can still hardly be truly imagined and the hardships they will continue to face will last long after this disaster is no longer a headline report.

Our thanks go also to Mark Shepherd of Waitrose and to all his staff who kindly, for this exceptional occasion, permitted members of Sid Valley Rotary Club to arrange a three-day collection at Waitrose store, and also to the Co-op staff of Sidmouth who allowed Sidmouth Rotary Club to collect outside in addition to the collection at the Market Square on Saturday.

The grand total collected by members of both Rotary clubs amounted to about £6,000 (late donations still arriving) and this will be sufficient to buy 10 ShelterBoxes, enough to accommodate over 100 people.

The large tents included in the ShelterBoxes are likely to be the only home many of the people of the Philippines will have until houses can be constructed.

Once again, our thanks to the people of Sidmouth and surrounding areas for their generosity at this time.

JUDITH STEPHENS,
President, Sid Valley Rotary Club

❄ Organic Worx For Life

ORGANIC Worx is an health food business dedicated to sustainability and organic living.

It was born out of a desire for my eldest daughter to go into business with me and rekindle a long term dream to create outlets to promote seasonal, sustainable, organic lifestyles. I previously owned and ran Ottery Healthstore, in Ottery St Mary, but had to let it go to care for my elderly father. Having now moved to Colyton and my daughter here in Seaton we chose this lovely seaside town to reawaken this dream.

Come and meet us at Organic Worx and celebrate with mulled wine and mulled fruit juice, mince pies and Christmas cake. We will be open on Friday 6th December all day and through the evening offering 10% off to all our customers as a welcome gesture on the day.

We have a wide selection of foods for people with special dietary needs. I also bake fresh pastries and cakes using only Spelt flour, including just a few Christmas Cakes. We also stock a range of Organic Toiletries, health supplements and environmentally friendly cleaning products and refills.

We look forward to meeting you and sharing some festive foods and good cheer.

FUCHSIA Fashions, in Fore street, is a Ladies' boutique that provides clothing and accessories for all ages. It provides "Nearly New" designer and good quality clothing, at a fraction of its original price!

Fuchsia Fashions had their official opening recently, whereby councillor, 'Gaynor Sedgwick' - Town Mayor: Seaton Town Council, provided the follow quote:

'I was delighted to officially open Fuchsia Fashions, Fiona, her staff and family have transformed the premises, and what a transformation. This is a developing business, selling beautiful clothes, shoes and accessories, which is just what Seaton needed.'

Seaton continues to buck the trend and attract investors into the town. I would like to encourage residents to support these small businesses and shop locally.'

Owner, Fiona Lund, said "There is something here for all occasions and ages; from casual day wear to elegant evening, party or prom dresses and wedding ensembles complete with fabulous hats. There are also stylish high street brands and some quirky vintage items at amazing prices" - Perfect for Christmas and New Year celebrations!

Fiona is originally from Taunton, and moved to seaton due to finding the town so friendly and wanting to live near the sea. Fiona will be assisted by her daughter who has been studying Fashion Design in Birmingham and her nieces and young friends.

The shop was previously a chinese Takeaway though had not traded as such for thirteen years. As a memory to it's past, local mural artist Dan Bailey has painted a beautiful "chinoiserie" style mural in the entrance area.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL ~ FRIDAY 6TH DECEMBER 2013

❄️ St Nicholas

ST NICHOLAS Residential Care home was re-registered by CQC on Friday, September 14th 2012 to accommodate five residents instead of three, with the big demand of families wanting a small home for their relatives.

The home has recently under gone an unannounced inspection by our regulators, Care Quality Commission (CQC), and the outcome was very good.

St Nicholas Residential Care home in Seaton provides peace and tranquillity and security for up to five elderly residents, requiring full time care with quality as a priority.

St Nicholas Residential Care Home is a family run home, with high standards and fully trained carers; St Nicholas has been established for 15 years, and the home is in the beautiful Devonshire countryside in Seaton.

The proprietor Karen Roberts and her partner live on the premise which ensures high standards are maintained.

There is well trained staff on duty day and night, and work very closely with the local doctors and district nurses.

Care plans will be made with the involvement of the resident, and their relations, this emphasizes the residents potential to manage their own lives, as independently as possible, and for the freedom of choice. Care plans are reviewed monthly and whenever there is a change in the residents care needs.

Fees vary depending on the level of care required, we do take Social Services residents, for any more information, or a brochure please ring Karen or Samantha Roberts on (01297) 20814, or if preferred come to St Nicholas for a cup of tea/coffee, and chat with ourselves.

Sports Therapy

Sports Therapy is an aspect of healthcare that is specifically concerned with the prevention of injury and the rehabilitation of the patient back to optimum levels of functional, occupational and sports specific fitness, regardless of age and ability.

It utilises the principles of sport and exercise sciences incorporating physiological and pathological processes to prepare the client for training, competition and work.

Although some physiotherapists focus on sports-related cases, sports therapy and rehabilitation is a separate profession, requiring a 3 year intense study at university. It is concerned with musculo-skeletal conditions arising from physical activity, not with general healthcare.

MEMBERS of Skye Dance will be taking part in Axminster's Annual Variety Show organised by Niclaire Skye but this year with an added spring in their step as the profits from the show, which will take place on Sunday, December 1st at 3pm in the Guildhall, will be used towards the cost of taking part in a Dance Extravaganza being performed at Sadlers Wells in London.

The fundraising got off to a really good start this weekend when a cheque for £250 was handed over from Axminster Arts and further fund raising is being planned for the New Year.

This years show will be somewhat different from previous years as it is called Time Travel and is based on the adventures of a young dancer who meets a certain travelling time lord who helps her find something really precious. In addition to a variety of different group and solo dances performed by members of Skye Dance the time travellers will also encounter the Axminster Primary School Glee Club and several performances from talented local young musicians.

By coming to this show you will not only have a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon but will also be helping this talented group of youngsters perform on a West End Stage in front of 1,500 people.

Eat, drink and be merry at Winstons

ONCE upon a time, not so very long ago, a lonely disused Social Club in Seaton was taken over by a family from Devon, they decided to change the building into a Pub & Restaurant with no affiliation to the old club. Armed with a vision to make Winstons THE place to eat and drink in Seaton and with the best known chef in town they set about this plan with relish.

On March 7th 2013 Winstons Bar & Restaurant opened to the world – serving fresh home cooked food including Chef's ever changing specials, it quickly became a huge success. With friendly and welcoming staff, a range of meals to suit all pockets, well kept beers, live music, karaoke and a regularly used Function Room (available for hire), Winstons has all the ingredients for a great night out!

Our Sunday Lunches have become a highlight – a choice of three meats, home cooked Roasties and Yorkies, a good selection of Fresh Vegetables at only £8.95 plus a choice of pudding for only £1.00 extra!

On Friday 29th November there is a special Drum & Bass Night with DJ Timmy B.

Most Fridays and Saturdays nights in December there will be entertainment so book your Christmas Party early. Eat, drink and be merry!

If you like your night out a little bit different, with great food, drink and plenty of laughs then Winstons is the place to be - Come and see us, you know you want to!

THE HOLLY AND THE IVY

BREAK off from arduous Christmas preparations and head for the welcoming warmth of Seaton's Town Hall and a lively feast of Christmas music on Sunday, December 15th at 4pm. This wonderful venue is in itself a magnet for audiences from a wide area - all are benefiting from the vitality and professionalism of the management there; to put it simply, the place is humming!

The programme, devised by musical director Peter Milmer, is titled "The Holly and the Ivy" and includes an excerpt from Handel's "Messiah", the fourth of his famous "Chandos" anthems, and a superb selection of Christmas carols. These will range from the hushed tenderness of Berlioz's "The Shepherd's Farewell" and Adam's "O Holy Night" to a jaunty "Holly and the Ivy" and some old friends such as "The twelve days of Christmas" and "Good King Wenceslas", complete with (it is to be hoped) some scintillating audience participation!

Those who have attended recent concerts by the Society will remember the radiant singing of soprano Susie Milmer. Susie will sing "I know that my Redeemer liveth" as well as her husband's setting of the "Recordare"; and another high spot will be Howell's "A Spotless Rose" - a very beautiful choral piece with Leslie Baker as the tenor soloist. The accompaniments, some of which have been specially arranged by Peter Milmer, will be provided by a string quartet led by Anna Cockcroft, with Michèle Banting, piano.

Tickets (available from Seaton Town Hall) are £10, but anyone aged 18 and under is welcomed in free. There will be a bar for refreshments.

'Remarkable' folk talent Ruth Notman at Jurassic Folk Guest Night

RUTH Notman is a contemporary folk singer/songwriter based in Nottinghamshire. Although now only aged 24, she has been maturing and honing her style and skill for over a decade in front of festival and venue audiences all over the UK, and Peter Arnold, Jurassic Folk organiser, recalls first booking her for Priddy Folk Festival when she was only 15.

Her debut album Threads received rousing national acclaim when it was released in 2007, being described as "remarkable..." - The Guardian. Ruth's pure and powerful voice stunningly conveys stories of love, loss, adventure and heartache, weaving through simple stripped down ballads and soaring above sweeping strings arrangements. Her quirky piano melodies and catchy guitar riffs are augmented on her album with melodeon, fiddle, cello and beautiful harmonies. The result is a dynamic and striking album, which made the music world sit up and listen.

Her second album The Life of Lilly continued to push boundaries of folk. This ability to perform songs with such emotion and skill has led to recognition within the folk scene coming with endorsements from John Tams and Bob Harris and in an interview, Kate Rusby was asked about the state of the current folk scene: "I heard a girl recently called Ruth Notman," she commented, "I thought she was fantastic, really special."

After a musical sabbatical to concentrate on studies, Ruth is returning with more style than ever and is currently preparing to record her new Album which due for release late 2013.

So Jurassic Folk is very pleased to be able to present her, and advance tickets are available at £7. (On the door they will be £9.) It all happens at the Grove, Seaton, 4th December, with doors open at 7.45pm. As always, tickets available on the website www.eastdevonfolk.org, and by phoning 01297 20064.

Property of the week

A detached bungalow of "Colt" construction situated in a tranquil location towards the end of a private drive, ideal for those purchasers who require peace and quiet. Paradoxically, easy access is available to the A35 trunk road and the facilities on offer in the nearby market town of Axminster, which has a main-line to London Waterloo. The coastal resort of Lyme Regis is a just over a mile away, and in addition there are many footpaths and walks nearby. The property would benefit from some updating, but the undoubted feature is the superbly stocked gardens.

Village locations on top of buyers' shopping list

MARK Goodenough of Pennys Fine & Country reports a continued and sustained demand from property hungry buyers looking to make a move this Autumn.

Mark commented this week: "As we now move deep into the fourth quarter of the year and thoughts of Christmas inevitably creep in we have been impressed with the amount of continued viewing activity.

In particular, village locations are on the buyers shopping list - in fact, we have sold two properties this month in the classic estuary village of Axmouth, Blue Hayes off an asking price of £499,950. We also completed this week on High Burrow, Burrow Lane off an asking price of £325,000 to buyers who sold through our Southernhay, Exeter Office.

In town, flats, houses and bungalows continue to pick up buyers - last week another of our bungalows in Ryalls Court, Seaton went under offer (off an asking price of £350,000)-with a wide choice available and an improved selection of mortgage deals coming on tap we envisage an active winter market continuing into 2014.

Mark Goodenough of Pennys Fine and Country can be contacted on 01297 22224.

Mazda's growth set to continue with five new models in three years

MAZDA is about to enjoy its best time in more than a decade as it launches five new generation models globally in less than three years.

That's the prediction of UK Managing Director Jeremy Thomson who describes the unprecedented product offensive as "rebooting" the marque.

The rapid pace of launches is the biggest since the launch of the previous generation Mazda6, Mazda3 and Mazda RX-8 during 2002-04.

"We're predicting good times ahead while the rest of the industry is predicted to be relatively flat," said Thomson.

"Over the next 18 months to two years we will continue our very strong product-led growth which sends out an exciting message to our dealers," he added.

That recovery in sales comes on the back of the successful launches of Mazda CX-5, new Mazda6 and the forthcoming all-new Mazda3 – all with Mazda's groundbreaking SKYACTIV technology.

Sales are running 10 per cent ahead of the original planned for the year resulting in Mazda reacting quickly to add production to their programme to relinquish stock and meet future demands. "While we would rather run with one car too few than one too many, we also need to ensure the network can fully capitalise on the increase in sales opportunities," said Sales Director Peter Allibon.

In the first 10 months of 2013, Mazda sold 27,800 cars, 16 per cent up on the same period in 2012 according to SMMT data.

The restructuring of the dealer network is also paying dividends, boosting sales per outlet and increasing profitability.

Average new car sales through each dealership are expected to quickly return to pre-crisis level as total annual volume approaches 40,000 units, explained Allibon.

That growth will also help boost dealer profitability which is forecast to be better than the average for the industry next year and return to the top quartile as sales of the new generation of SKYACTIV models reach over 70 per cent of the total mix next year.

"A combination of growth, dealer profitability and the increased kerb appeal of the SKYACTIV models are encouraging dealers to upgrade to the premium, fresh and 21st century feel of the new corporate identity – a look that was piloted in the UK earlier this year and will make Mazda stand out in multi-franchise outlets," explained Allibon.

"Meanwhile, the growth momentum continues with Mazda's position as a franchise of choice being reinforced further by the fact that there are more companies who want to become a Mazda dealer than there are open points," concluded Allibon.

Spread the cost of motoring with a Vauxhall service plan

GROWTH in Vauxhall Service Plan uptake shows that an increasing number of customers are spreading the cost of their servicing and enjoying peace-of-mind motoring.

In 2012, sales of Vauxhall Service Plans increased 75 per cent against 2011. This year the uptake is continuing, with sales up 25 per cent.

Service plans allow motorists to spread the cost of their servicing by paying a fixed amount every month, so that when their car needs a service, all the costs have been paid for in advance, including parts and labour and an advisory brake fluid change.

The latest Vauxhall Service Plan has now been released for ADAM, at just £15 per month for any model, over a two, three or four year period. The plans are inflation-proof having been fixed at today's prices, as well as being interest-free, giving Vauxhall owners the very best value for money.

"Service Plan holders enjoy greater peace-of-mind, knowing that their servicing costs have been paid for upfront, avoiding a larger one-off servicing bill," said Belinda Craik, Vauxhall's Service Channel Manager.

"All services are carried out by Vauxhall trained technicians who know Vauxhalls best and the Vauxhall service stamp in the logbook will help to maintain the car's resale value."

How do Rear Parking Sensors work?

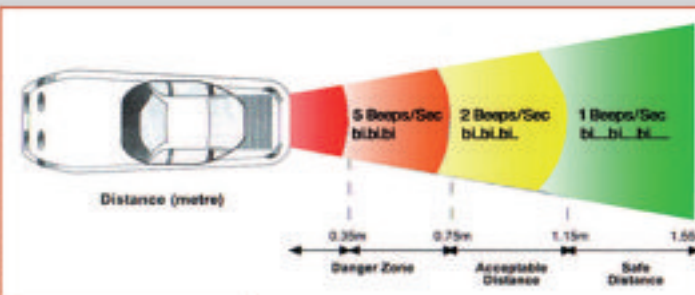

The rear parking system is automatically activated when you engage reverse gear.

Sensors are fitted into the rear bumper of the vehicle, which send and receive ultrasonic radio waves that bounce off obstacles and alert you to their presence.

There is an internal audio buzzer that gradually increases in frequency as you approach the object. A continuous tone denotes that you are approximately 0.35m (1ft) from the obstacle.

We can also fit rear parking sensors to most vans. Call us with your vehicle details. We have a range of colours please ask for more details.

Free Collection within a 10 mile radius
Free Courtesy Car (subject to insurance)

Two off as Seaton hold high-flying Fenny Honiton go six clear - Ax given lesson as students get revenge

Devon & Exeter League Match report UNIVERSITY 6 AXMOUTH UTD 1

HAVING ended University's unbeaten start a few weeks ago a strong Uni side returned the favour in crushing style ending Axmouth's 11-game unbeaten streak with a resounding 6-1 defeat on Saturday.

In a first-half in which had been even contested, visiting Axmouth, who were without seven players found themselves 2-0 down before Reece Hales finished a good move to make it 2-1 at the break.

The visitors then pressed early in the 2nd and from a corner Christian Burridge headed what he and everyone watching thought was a leveller except the referee who claimed he was unsighted.

As Axmouth protested the home side took advantage and broke free to score unchallenged making it 3-1 in what proved the defining moment of the match.

With Axmouth clearly unsettled Uni capitalised on their opponents loss of focus and made it 4-1.

Worse was to come for the league leaders as 'keeper Brad Cross was dismissed for tripping a striker in a last man challenge.

The resulting penalty was duly despatched past stand-in Scott Dyer and a miserable day was completed as the 10 men suffered one final time to finish 6-1 down.

Ax manager Laurie Forino was realistic about the result, he said: "The University lads deserved it, although the goal not given at 2-1 really did make a massive difference but our own reaction didn't help.

"I was without seven players today which is disappointing.

"I'll be having a long think about who starts next week if all are available in what will be our most important game so far as we face second placed Lords XI.

"I'll be expecting a reaction to that defeat from the lads and while upsetting it had to happen at some stage, we are still in a fantastic position to challenge."

running round-up

Blister not so severe this year

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter THERE was a great AVR turn out for the 10-mile Bicton Blister plus 4.5 mile Blister Lite.

There were many first timers and it was good to see runners of all abilities having a go at racing.

The newbies however were given a false sense of security by this year's course as the recent dry weather meant the pond that was two feet deep last year was just an overgrown puddle. It also meant that many runners had a P.B. for this event.

Thirteen-year-old Ben Franklin performed superbly in the "Lite"; he was 1st male and 2nd overall in 34:57.

Ethan Day also ran well finishing 8th in 38:12 winning the 4th male trophy. Stephen Morbey finished 19th, 42:05 and Hannah Bramley the first 15-year-old girl, 22nd overall in 42:11. Lesly Adams was 48th, 51:22; Christa Bramley 52nd, 52:17; Martin Kerr 62nd, 56:57; Natalie Wakelin 68th, 58:24; Margaret Cracker 71st, 59:50 and Liz Thomas 77th, 1:04:05.

Andrew Chambers of Bristol AC was the victor in the longer Blister run taking 1:01:21.

Matt Clist was once again AVR's top performer finishing 8th out of 431, 1:05:43 with Tim Lenton 2nd over 40 just adrift in 12th spot taking 1:07:10. James Green in his first AVR run did extremely well to be 16th, 1:09:00 with young Josh Coates 36th, 1:13:17; Jonathan Day 47th, 1:14:40, Rupert Pady 51st, 1:15:24, Ian Apps 107th, 1:22:36 and Eleanor Wood 1st over 55, 1:17th overall in 1:23:37.

Roger Bramley was 135th, 1:25:46; Dave Thomas 139th, 1:26:10 and Carol Austin, 2nd over 50, 165th overall in 1:28:25. Richard Hale was 179th, 1:29:42; Emma Kieran 185th, 1:30:11; Geoff Woodward 214th, 1:33:23; Margaret Pierce 216th, 1:33:36; Anna McLoughlin 249th, 1:37:18; Paul Tolchard 253rd, 1:37:36 and newcomer Kirsty Bate 255th, 1:37:46.

Steven Lewis was 260th, 1:38:15, Chris Hill 274th, 1:39:41 and Dave Mutter 295th, 1:41:30. Rachel Tytherleigh, Jess and Sue Tubbs finished together in 312th spot taking 1:43:34.

Angela Kerr was 330th, 1:46:49, Tracey Anning-Beckett 338th, 1:47:35; Sue Venn 365th, 1:51:40; Michelle Woodward 367th, 1:52:16; Gill Day 394th, 1:58:03; Janet Culum and Janette Mack joint 405th, 1:59:49; Janet Woodward and Alison Gould joint 417th in 2:05:32.

Tim Lenton, Jonathan Day and Ian Apps were 2nd in the over 40 team competition and Eleanor Wood, Carol Austin and Margaret Pearce were also 2nd in the ladies over 40 team event.

Once again Exmouth Harries put on a superb race in the stunning Devon countryside.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey SEVERAL Honiton Running Club members took part in the Bicton Blister last Sunday.

This is a 10-mile multi-terrain race which takes runners across Woodbury Common. Roland Hall was first back for Honiton in 22nd place in 1 hour 10 minutes with Ian Stewart following 5 minutes later in 48th place.

Tom Bornet's running is getting better and better with every race and he ran well to come 74th in 1:19. Steve Davey managed to keep Richard Harvey behind him for this race finishing just 15 seconds ahead of him both being given the time of 1:20. Steve was 83rd and Richard 85th.

Julie Payne continued the success of last week to win her age category finishing in 1:23 in 115th place.

Howard Bidmead also had a good run finishing 119th 27 seconds later. Mark Dallyn had a much better run than last year to come 137th in 1:25 and Judy Davey was the only other lady Honiton runner coming 152nd in 1:27 also managing to win her category.

It was Steve Briggs' first time on the course and he found it much tougher than last week's Drogo race. He finished 193rd in 1:30.

Tony Peek raced for the club for the first time and enjoyed the course to finish 229th in 1:34.

There were 431 finishers and the winner was Andrew Chambers of Bristol in 1:01.

Thanks to Exmouth Harriers and all the supportive marshals for a well organised event.

Last place for a prize went to Su Calver and Jason Gosling with 37pts.

Tuesday Charity Roll Up

LAST Tuesday 38 seniors rolled up for their usual draw, but instead of playing for the pot, it was decided to forgo the prizes in favour of a donation to Shelter Box in support of victims of the Philippines disaster.

With the prize pot and individual donations over £100 was sent to the charity.

SENIORS SECTION

ON Friday there was a good field of 73 players entered in a medal competition which was played on a cold, dry day with some frost on the ground.

Dave Maggs won Division One with a net 67. Peter Shepherd made 70, and both were given yellow cards to start the Winter handicapping system.

If they are again winners or runners-up they will have red cards and lose a shot from their handicaps. Vic Wood took third with 71, beating Buzz Harris on count-back. Ron Graham took the last prize.

Division Two was won by Norrie Fleet with a net 65. Peter Blake came second, and they were both given yellow cards.

Bill Phillips had a 71, followed by John Chew on 72 and Phil Faulkner with 73.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

ON a bright breezy morning last Friday, 32 Seniors took part in the November Stableford.

The final placings were not decided until the final group came in and ended with two players leading on 36 points.

The winner, on countback, was Rob Grove (15) with Malcolm Glass (19) having to settle for second place.

HONITON WITH TONY BROUGHTON

THIS week has been very quiet for Honiton - one friendly Ladies match at home against Sidmouth resulted in a three-shot match win for Honiton.

The match turned out a fair tussle with Tracy Crawford's rink losing by one shot, Anne Newman's rink drawing and the Linda Gadd, Yvonne Williams and Brenda Harris team winning by just four shots.

Sidmouth had to reduce their side to Triples as their next round of the Yetton Trophy against South Hams had to be played on the same day.

Unfortunately their two away teams lost and although both home teams won they could not cover the loss and they are now out of the competition.

The Honiton Ladies Mason 'A' side were also in action again this week against The Torbay Country Club side of Paignton.

The home team of Jean Mitchell, Marian Vessey, Ann Hillyear and Pearl Hackwood found them particularly tough, going down by three shots.

Fortunately the away team of Berry Maynard, Dulcie Broughton, Carol Smith and Julie Grant managed a very handy six-shot victory giving Honiton the match by three shots.

AXMINSTER WITH DAVID HARRIS

IN the mixed friendlies we lost narrowly 50-55 at Madeira with a winning rink of; Pam Clark, Alan Foster, George Mabon, and Margaret Crompton (26-16).

Next up was a 62-33 win over Feniton at home with wins on all rinks - Phil White, Barbara Mowatt, David Harris, and Pat Whitworth (22-10), Morrison Brown, Brian Downton, John Hill, and Neil Solomon (22-11), and Margaret Brown, Ann Clayton, Les Clark, and Margaret Crompton (18-12).

We then beat Chardstock 62-49 at home with winning rinks of; Phil White, Pam Hunter, David Harris, and Neil Solomon (25-12) and Morrison Brown, Derek Pheby, Alan Curtis, and Margaret Crompton (21-18) and finally lost 45-71 at Honiton after a second-half collapse - our winning rink was; Pam Clark, John Hill, Ken Quick, and Ann Clayton (18-16).

The mens Over 60s lost their County League game against Isca 70-84 with our only success coming from the away team of; John Packham, Eric Skeemer, Bob Sherborne, and Barry Rattenbury (24-21).

The Ladies narrowly lost their County Foxlands match with Dawlish 71-84 with both away rinks victorious - Joan Quick, Margaret Ball, Brenda Raistrick, and Jan Parsons (24-18) and Brenda Edwards, Pat Whitworth, Ann Clayton, and Margaret Crompton (21-17).

They then lost rather heavily 54-114 against Mid Devon in the same Competition with the home rink of; Joan Quick, Pam Hunter, Jan Parsons, and Nola Stephens our sole winners (22-16).

The other home team of Brenda Edwards, Ann Clayton, and Margaret Crompton (one player short!) did well to tie 17-17 but of course had to suffer a 25 percent score reduction!

In their only friendly the Ladies lost their triples match 39-60 at Madeira with only Jo Barnish, Alison Glyde, and Margaret Crompton managing a win (17-13).

Seaton Town Under 12s were in local derby action against Colyton in the Exeter & District Youth Football League.

Both teams started very well and seemed evenly matched, but Seaton continued to press and towards the end of the first half were starting to create chances.

The Colyton 'keeper had an excellent game but, with only a few minutes of the first half remaining, Reece McCabe struck a shot that the 'keeper initially saved but Edward Kenworthy knocked in the rebound.

In the second-half Seaton doubled their lead when McCabe cleverly chipped home and Piers Alphonse struck at the near post from corner kick for his first goal for the team, giving Seaton a hard fought 3-0 win.

This was Seaton's seventh league win in a row from the eight games played, which sees then remain second in Division 2.

Seaton under 8s returned to action at the weekend. First up were Cullompton and an impressive team performance saw them run out 6-0 winners, with two goals apiece for Henry Matthews, George Gait and Aaron Hale.

Matthews was playing at the top his game and was a constant threat breaking from midfield - he had a great afternoon.

Next up were Bradninch and the game finished in a 2-2 draw.

Seaton fell behind twice, but battled back to claim a share of the spoils. Leo Gribble and Gait got the goals, but Kieran Jaycock marked an impressive debut with some great composure and link up play in midfield.

Max Neville also had a solid game, winning tackles and using the ball well.

Seaton U10 4 Honiton 0

SEATON Town U10 kept another clean sheet after a very impressive performance against a well organised, slick Honiton side. Livvy Mathews was masterful in defence with strong tackling and superb distribution. Another outstanding energetic display from Jack White who ran the midfield. Zak Hawkins had an amazing game scoring all four goals, including scoring directly from a corner.

It was a genuinely good all round team performance and the management were very proud. Supporters player of the day, Livvy Mathews, coaches award, Zak Hawkins.

Millwey Rise 1 Seaton Town U11 12

SEATON started well in this local derby at Millwey Rise.

Connor Cox (2) and Max Richardson put the Seaside 3-0 ahead before Millwey pulled one back from a free kick.

After the break the Seaton passing improved. Goals from Lewis Cottam (2), Tony Pinder, Ollie Binion, Pete Smith - fantastic goal from the halfway line, Matty Vincent (2), Lewis Franklin and Lewis Gibbs completed the scoring. MoM: Lewis Franklin.

Millwey Rise through to Coronation Final

THE basement battle at the foot of the South West Peninsula League didn't go to plan for Axminster Town who went down to a 2-1 reverse against Liverton United at Colyton Grammar School.

A bad start saw the Tigers 2-0 down after 20 minutes and to recover from there proved to be too big an ask despite Stuart Broom's headed response.

Ax player-manager Gary Mcauley said: "We didn't start well but probably deserved a point against a side who although bottom of the table have had a change of management and have brought in new players in the last few weeks."

Meanwhile, Axminster Town Reserves difficult season in the Devon & Exeter League Division Three continued with a 5-1 defeat at Exeter University fourths.

Seaton Town conceded twice for the fourth game in succession but bagged a useful Devon & Exeter League Premier division point by holding unbeaten reigning league champions Feniton to a 2-2 draw at Colyford Road.

Seaton, with Glen Gould pulling the strings in midfield, led twice through Martyn Hancock and Alex Wheatley but conceded a second leveler in the 12th minute of injury time!

Seaton's Pete Knox and Fenny manager Mark Kingdon were red-carded.

weekend when they entertain title favourites St Martins who still boast a proud 100 per cent record.

Beer Albion failed to repeat last week's win over Chard Town Reserves when the two teams met in the reverse fixture at Furzebrake.

Adam Tovey scored a last minute winner for Chard as the Fishermen slipped to a 3-2 defeat.

Next up for Beer is a trip to face third placed Budleigh Salterton Reserves on Saturday.

Beer Reserves and their local-rivals Seaton Reserves are both stuck in the bottom two places in the Division Five table.

Beer went down 4-0 at Amory Park Rangers while Seaton slipped to a 2-1 defeat at Dawlish United Reserves.

Beer welcome Westex Rovers Reserves at the weekend while Seaton head off to Mordard Bishop Reserves.

Axmouth United's lead at the top of Division Four is now two points after they were hammered 6-1 at Exeter University. Ax entertain second-placed Lords XI on Saturday.

There was good news from Colyton who crushed bottom-of-the-table Clyst Valley 6-1 at the Peace Memorial Hall Ground.

But the Tanners' Reserves' poor away form continued as they went down 2-1 at Sandford Reserves. The team will hope for better when they visit Lapford Reserves while the first team have no game.

Over in the Perry Street & District League goals from Sam Dibling (2), Brad-Lee Miller and Carl German saw Millwey Rise come from behind to beat Beaminster to clinch a place in Coronation Cup Final.

Rise will face cup-holders Crewkerne Town in the final on their own Harry's Field turf on Saturday, January 4th (11am ko).

Millwey make the same trip at the weekend for the corresponding league fixture – a win could see the team back up into the top five of the Premier division.

Millwey Reserves' scheduled trip to Lyme Bantams was postponed. Simon Flint's team turned their attention to the Daisy Hutchings Cup and a first round tie on Saturday when they welcome Division Four strugglers Hinton.

Over at Hawkechurch United Glenn Harding scored twice for the second game in succession as the Hawks thrashed Chard Rangers 5-1.

Manager Martin Bright and his troops are also in Hutchings cup action when they welcome neighbours Uplyme Reserves.

■ TIGERS TOPPLED: Axminster Town midfielder Ben Turner in action in Saturday's 2-1 defeat by Liverton United at Colyton Grammar School.
